

TAKING STEPS IN B.C

March 21, 2024

8:30AM - 4:00 PM (lunch included)

Metrotower III, 4515 Central
Boulevard Burnaby, BC V5H 0C6

Late last year, SVX released "Taking Steps": a report identifying actions to address challenges facing Indigenous-led enterprises in raising private capital. Now, let's take steps together to help share with and learn from each other!

JOIN US FOR A DAY OF LEARNING, SHARING AND RELATIONSHIP-BUILDING

Building on "Taking Steps," Impact United, the impact investor community from SVX, is hosting an event to share insights and unite individuals interested in advancing the initiatives outlined in the report. Initiatives include (1) educating investors and investees, and (2) building relationships between capital providers and seekers.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Panel Discussion. Engage in a panel discussion sharing perspectives on the "Taking Steps" report.

2 Breakout Sessions;

- Re-Imagining the Language of Finance: What common ground can be found between investors and Indigenous entrepreneur expectations?
- Indigenous Perspectives on Economic Sustainability. Educate non-Indigenous funders and capital providers to foster an understanding of some Indigenous perspectives.

Storytelling Session. Hear about Indigenous entrepreneurs and business owners that are changing the narrative and leading by example.

Networking sessions to profile Indigenous enterprises and foster meaningful relationship-building opportunities.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Investors & asset owners, including foundations and family offices.

Trust officers and financial managers.

Indigenous entrepreneurs and business owners. Intermediaries, including financial advisors and fund managers.

Leaders from academic institutions.

Community representatives.

